II. Read and play during your leisure. Хонед ва дар вақти холигиатон иҷро намоед.

There is a good playground in front of our school. Every day we play different games with our classmates there. One of these games is “Whom do you choose from us?” It is a national children game. Children divide into two groups (teams). These groups of players stand on the two lines opposite each other at a distance of 10–15 meters. They hold each others strongly by hands. Then after the casting of lots one of the groups of players begins all together to say:

“We are standing all the class,
Whom do you choose from us?”

The opposite players name one of the members of that group. That boy (or girl) runs to the line of the standing of players and throws himself (herself) into the hands of holders. If he (she) divides them, he (she) chooses one of them and takes him (her) with himself (herself) to his (her) line. If he (she) cannot divide the line of them, he (she) stands with them on the opposite line. The winner will be that group, where they gather more of players at the end of the game.
